EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia :

THE Directors of the Girard College for Orphans respectfully present to Councils, their

EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT.

Three hundred and four orphans were receiving instruction and maintenance in the Girard College, at the date of the last Annual Report, and were recorded on its catalogue.

At various periods during the past year, fifty-two orphans, all of whom were born in the City of Philadelphia, and who were previously examined and recommended by the Committee on Admission, have been admitted to the benefits of the Institution.

Within the same period, thirty-two of the pupils of the College have been apprenticed to suitable trades or occupations, in conformity to the provisions of the Ordinance passed by Councils for that purpose. In the same time, the indentures of five of the pupils of the College have been canceled, at the request of their mothers or next friends, by whom suitable provision has been made for them; and four boys have been removed from the Institution.

Two of the pupils of the College have died during the year last past, namely—

Septimus Lewis, who died on the 26th day of June; and William Ascendorph, who died on the 22d day of August.

The whole number of orphans, now receiving the benefits of the Institution, and regularly registered on the catalogue, is three hundred and thirteen.

No important modification has been made during the past year, in the instruction and discipline of the College; these continue to be administered as heretofore reported, under the superintendence and management of the same officers and teachers.

Commencing with the Primary Department No. 2, which is the initial, embracing children of the lowest attainments, it had one hundred and seventeen pupils belonging to it at the date of the last Annual Report. During the year 1855, fifty-one were admitted; forty-eight promoted, and one dismissed; so that the number now belonging to this department is one hundred and nineteen. These are divided into five classes, and the following table exhibits the standing of the respective classes, for the past year.

CLASSES.	Spelling.	Reading.	Arithmetic.	Writing.	Definition.	Average.	AVERAGE AGE.
Class A,	6.77	5.84	7.53	5.53	7.43	6.62	10 years, 5 months.

" F,	3.30	3.18	0.65			2.93	7 " 9 "
Total,	5.84	4.52	5.30	4.31	7.63	5.03	9 years, 1 month.

At the commencement of the year 1855, the number of pupils belonging to Primary No. 1, was ninety-seven. Since that time, forty-eight pupils have been received from Primary Department, No. 2; and one upon his admission into the College on the 19th of April last. During the same period, forty-two pupils have been advanced to the Principal Department; three removed from the Institution; two indentured to business; one removed by the cancellation of his indentures; and one by death. The present number in this department, is ninety-seven.

The following table exhibits the average age and scholarship of the several classes of this department, for the year 1855 :

CLASSES.	Spelling.	Reading.	Writing.	Arithmetic.	Geography.	Grammar.	Elymology.	History.	Average.	AVERAGE AGE.

Total,	6.66	5.82	6.49	6.03	6.09	5.74	5.70	6.76	6.00	11 years, 1 month.

In the Principal Department, there were at the beginning of the present year, ninety pupils. During the course of the year, forty-two pupils have been received from Primary School, No. 1. Within the same period, thirty pupils have been indentured to trades or occupations ; four have had their indentures canceled ; and one has died. The number at present in the school, is ninety-seven.

The schedule below, gives the extremes, together with the average of scholarship in the several classes of this department, for the year 1855. It contains the average marks of the highest and the lowest scholar of each class, and also the class averages obtained from all the exercises of the past year.

	A.	B.	C.	D.	E.	F.
Highest Average,	9.29	8.13	8.48	7.84	8.28	7.85

Class Averages,	7.60	7.40	7.08	6.51	6.46	6.39

The annual Catalogue of the College accompanies this report, in which will be found the name, age and date of birth of each pupil of the Institution, together with his average of conduct and scholarship for the past year.

The Directors of the College, believing that it would conduce to the promotion of the discipline and progress of the pupils, by noticing publicly those who were meritorious in conduct and scholarship, and of rewarding such with suitable prizes, adopted a plan which had been submitted for that purpose by the President of the College, at the meeting of the Board, held on the 13th of December.

This plan was referred to the Committee on Discipline, who were authorized to carry the same into execution, at the next anniversary of the College. This duty was satisfactorily performed by the committee at the time appointed. The testimony of the officers and teachers of the College is, "that it has produced a marked salutary effect, not only on the better part of the pupils, but also on those who have hitherto been careless in conduct and negligent in study."

Under the liberal appropriation made by Councils for that purpose, the Directors have recently furnished one of the large rooms in the College building, with very ample and appropriate book-cases, to accommodate the College library. These cases, which have been fitted up in a style corresponding with the beautiful apartment in which they have been constructed, are calculated to contain about eight or ten thousand volumes; and the Directors hope, in the course of a very few years, to fill the vacant shelves with well selected and useful books, adapted not only for a working library, but for general purposes.

The Secretary of the College, who is also its Librarian, is now occupied in carefully arranging, labeling and preparing a catalogue of the valuable collection of volumes now in possession of the Institution.

The Board of Directors have given constant care to the important duty of providing suitable situations for those pupils who are prepared to be placed to business. The interesting and satisfactory report of the Committee on Discipline, who are charged with the more immediate execution of this momentous concern, together with the details furnished by the Secretary, who acts "as Superintendent of the binding-out of the orphans of the College," will be found appended hereto.

The financial accounts of the College for the past year, are, as usual, submitted in a statement annexed to this report, exhibiting the several items of appropriation made by Councils, to the various departments of the Institution, and showing, also, the expenditures made by the respective standing committees. From these statements it will appear, that the expenses have been kept within the prescribed limits.

The ordinance recently enacted by Councils, providing for the erection, within the College walls, of suitable buildings for the use of the Primary Department, has been received by the Board, and claimed its attention. It has been referred to a joint committee, composed of the Standing Committees of Instruction and Household. This joint Committee are earnestly engaged in considering the important subject committed to it; and the Directors hope to be able speedily to mature and submit a plan which, whilst it will be in harmony with the buildings already constructed on the College premises, will enable the Board to augment considerably the number of the pupils of the College, and that thus the "design and desire" of its Benevolent Founder may be greatly enlarged and extended.

The moral and intellectual improvement of the orphans of the College, during the past year, has been very satisfactory to the Directors; and they bear a willing testimony to the fidelity and diligence, with which the arduous and responsible duties devolving upon the President, Matron, and all the officers of Instruction and Household, have been fulfilled by them. The discipline of the College has been faithfully maintained, "the conduct of a great majority of the orphans has been praiseworthy, and those exceptional cases which have required the interposition of the Board of Directors, have greatly diminished in number."

The Directors of the Girard College for Orphans, in thus submitting to Councils another Annual Report of its history and condition, are made renewedly sensible of the magnitude of the trust committed to their charge, and respectfully assure Councils of their earnest desire for a faithful fulfillment of it; especially in reference to the moral culture of the orphans who are placed under their care. To this end, every right opportunity has been embraced, not only to enlarge their intellectual improvement, but to cultivate their best affections, to promote habits of self-control, to endeavor to impress their susceptible minds with a sense of their responsibilities as moral and accountable beings; "to train them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord," "so that," in the emphatic language of the illustrious founder of the College, "on their entrance into active life, they may, from inclination and habit, evince benevolence to their fellow-creatures, and a love of truth, sobriety and industry."

The inestimable blessing of health has been graciously extended to the Institution during the past year. With the exception of the two deaths already noticed in this report, and occasional slight indisposition, the numerous inmates of the College have been preserved from severe sickness. May this and all the favors bestowed upon the Institution by Him who is father of the fatherless, make every heart connected with it unfeignedly thankful.

SAMUEL H. PERKINS,
President of the Board of Directors.

GIRARD COLLEGE, Feb. 1st, 1856.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF BINDING OUT.

Girard College, February 1st, 1856.

WILLIAM WELSH, ESQ.,

Chairman Com. on Discharge and Discipline.

DEAR SIR :—At the date of the last Annual Report, eighty-nine lads had been apprenticed by the Institution. Since then, thirty-two pupils have been indentured to various trades and occupations, and seven of the original number have been re-apprenticed, in consequence of the death of masters, or for satisfactory causes. During the same period, the indentures of three orphans who had completed their course in the Institution, were canceled with the City of Philadelphia, to allow them to accept situations in other States, or to obtain eligible places where they would not be received in the usual forms; and the indentures of two apprentices have been canceled with their masters.

At the present date, the total number of pupils who are apprenticed by the College, is one hundred and nineteen. Of these orphans, eighty-eight have been bound to masters residing in the City of Philadelphia, and thirty-one to persons living in other parts of the State. Eighty-one of these apprentices reside in the families of their masters, and thirty-eight have been permitted, for special reasons, to board in other places approved by the Directors.

The following statement will show the occupations to which these apprentices have been placed :

Printers, - - -	19
Farmers and Horticulturists,	12
Chemists and Druggists, - -	10
Workers in Silver, - -	5
Plain, Fancy or Fresco Painting,	5

Appended to this report, will be found a Catalogue, containing the names of the apprentices, and the names, occupations, and residences of the masters.

At the termination of the past year, a circular letter was again addressed to each master, making inquiry as to the character, habits and progress of his apprentice. Although answers have been received from a majority, it is to be regretted, that many of the masters have neglected to respond to the questions of the Institution. The circumstances under which the pupils are bound out, to acquire an art or occupation, as well as the spirit and provisions of Mr. Girard's will, render these inquiries on the part of the College, at stated times, pertinent and proper, while the information is both an act of justice to the lad himself, and an assistance to the discipline of the master. It is to be hoped, that hereafter the intelligence sought for will be more promptly and more generally furnished.

The answers to these questions which have been received, present a gratifying account of the general success, conduct, and character of our former pupils. In a great majority of replies, the masters express the most unqualified praise of the merits, progress, and morals of their apprentices. It is deemed again, not improper to publish, in connection with this report, a few of the answers, as specimens of the pleasing replies we have received in answer to our queries.

During the past year, four lads have been reported as having left the service of their masters. In the present loose state of the relations which generally exist between employer and apprentice, where the tie between them is at the pleasure of either, it is not remarkable that such cases should occur. But the result in at least two of these instances, presents so fruitful a source of reflection, that it is deemed not improper to record them. In one case, the lad, after being absent for two months, came back of his own volition, to the home of his master, sick and suffering from disease, contracted by exposure and neglect. He has since been confined to his bed, unable to pursue his labors, and an early death, or, at least, an impaired and broken constitution, it is feared, will be the result of his unfortunate error.

In another case, the apprentice escaped to an adjoining State, filled with pleasure at the idea of his release from future restraint. Unable to procure work in the art to which he had been partially educated, he was compelled to seek for support in the hardest manual labor, and this failing, he has felt the want of both food and clothing, during the past inclement season.

In conclusion, the experience of another year, in this arduous and responsible duty, gives every reason to express the belief, that this portion of Mr. Girard's scheme of benevolence is meeting with satisfactory and sure success, and that, before long, the community will have new reason to bless the memory of the Founder of the College, in the number of intelligent, well-educated and skillful artizans, who have been saved through his instrumentality, for the world and for themselves.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY W. AREY,

Secretary Girard College.

LETTERS.

[From Mr. E. G. RODDY, Merchant, Upper Middletown,
Fayette County.]

January 15th, 1856.

DEAR SIR:—Yours of the 30th ult., making inquiry as to the progress and behavior of Henry McClay, has been duly received.

I am very glad of the opportunity thus afforded, to make a favorable report of him, on all the points of your communication.

He is making considerable progress in the business, and I think possesses the requisite ability for a “successful merchant.”

He is very kind and obedient, both in the store and in my family, and is much beloved by my family and customers. He attends church and Sabbath-school regularly, and I have never known him to swear or use any tobacco or liquors.

Respectfully, yours,

E. C. RODDY.

[From JNO. MCARTHUR, Architect, Philadelphia.]

January 28th, 1856.

DEAR SIR :—It affords me much pleasure to answer your inquiries respecting my student, George Summers, formerly a pupil of Girard College. He has applied himself diligently to his occupation, and is civil, faithful, and obedient in the highest degree.

He never absents himself from my business without my consent and approbation, and has made good progress in his profession. His leisure hours are mostly spent within the circle of my family, where he resides.

He is conformed in all things to its discipline; is regular in attendance on public worship, most correct in his morals, cleanly in his person, and his general deportment is blameless.

Respectfully, yours,

JNO. MCARTHUR, JR.,

No. 16 Mercantile Library.

[From Mr. JAS. A. MONTGOMERY, Farmer, Chester County.]

New London, January 11th, 1856.

DEAR SIR :—With much pleasure I can inform you that my apprentice, John Bussinger, who you inquire for, has made good progress in acquiring a knowledge of his business, and is industrious and faithful in the discharge of his various duties.

He resides in my family, and is polite, respectful and obedient, articular in his person, keeps good hours, and associates with those whom I approve of. He has not absented himself from my employment without my knowledge; his leisure hours are mostly spent in reading, and he attends public worship and Bible-class regularly.

I believe he endeavors to live in accordance with the good moral receipts you have instilled into his mind; and I hope he may ever prove an honor to your noble institution, a pleasure to me, a useful citizen, and a good man.

Yours, very respectfully,

JAS. A. MONTGOMERY.

[From L. C. FRANCIS, Philosophical Instrument Maker,
Philadelphia.]

Philad^a, February 5th, 1856.

DEAR SIR :—I have much pleasure in replying to yours of the 25th ult., in regard to Charles Milligan. He applies himself diligently to his occupation, and is willing to receive instruction. He is clean and orderly, conforming to the rules of the family, remaining home, and applying himself to study, with the exception of one evening and Sunday, when he visits his mother. He performs his errands promptly, and is fully trustworthy in all things that have come to my knowledge.

Yours, respectfully,

L. C. FRANCIS,
34 South Eighth St.

[From Mr. WM. STRUTHERS, Marble Mason and Sculptor,
Philadelphia.]

January 2d, 1856.

360 Market Street.

DEAR SIR :—I desire to acknowledge the receipt of your circular of the 30th ult, and in answering your questions, at the same time thank you for the interest manifested in the youth, apprenticed by the College to me, Henry W. Wrigley. I submit the following answers to your interrogatories :

1st. He is diligent, civil, faithful and obedient.

2d. He has never been absent without permission, one hour.

3d. His hours, when engaged in business, are spent in the office, or at buildings in progress ; he has no associates or companions, except our book-keeper, artist, or myself.

4th. He does not reside in my family, but is boarded with my book-keeper, where he has a home.

He has as yet not been put to work with the workmen. I am desirous he should have every opportunity of being made a superior workman, and for that cause, I have had him employed in drawing and the study of the rudiments of architecture, as well as to continue to make progress in accounts. He is young enough to take up the chisel, and will lose nothing by waiting a short time.

I will say, in conclusion, that he is a boy any parent may be proud of, and if he continues to endear himself as he has done, he may make a useful citizen, and an example.

Very respectfully, yours,

WILLIAM STRUTHERS.

[From Mr. A. T. GOODMAN, Conveyancer, Philadelphia.]

No. 48 South Fourth Street.

January 15th, 1856.

DEAR SIR:—With much pleasure I answer your favor, requesting of me certain information respecting the progress in studies, the habits, morals, &c., of William E. Littleton, late a pupil at Girard College.

Taking much interest in a rather dry and uninviting study, that of conveyancing, attentive and respectful to those with whom he is connected in business, his improvement gives satisfaction and promise of his becoming a useful man and a good citizen.

He is never absent from the office during business hours except upon permission, when he visits his relatives or those to whom he remains indebted for kindness and attention during his residence at the College.

His leisure hours are spent in study, or in the society of such as meet my approbation, and those with whom he resides.

He does not reside with myself, but in a family where he is treated with the greatest kindness, and where it can be truly said, he has a home. Few are more comfortably situated in this respect, and in no manner can he better testify his gratitude than by his willingness to place himself under the control of those contributing so much to his happiness and welfare.

He attends public worship regularly upon the Sabbath day, and frequently of an evening during the week; is cleanly, neat and orderly in his habits, submissive and obedient.

Happy in being able to give you such favorable answers to your inquiries,

I remain, truly yours,

A. T. GOODMAN.

[From ERNST WERNER, Fresco Painter, Philadelphia.]

Easton, January 19th, 1856.

DEAR SIR :—Agreeably to your request, to give you information of the progress and conduct of the pupil David Vetter, who has been bound to me to learn the fresco painting, I with pleasure inform you that his progress in his business is very promising, and his conduct in general very good, and I think he again deserves a favorable report on all your questions.

Yours, very respectfully,

ERNST WERNER.

[From Mr. JAS. HALSEY, Manufacturer Tailors' Trimmings,
Philadelphia.]

DEAR SIR :—George Gorman is entirely commendable in every respect, and in all ways perfectly satisfactory as a scholar and an apprentice.

In haste,

Yours, &c.,

JAS. HALSEY.

[From LACEY & PHILLIPS, Manufacturers of Harness, &c.,
Philadelphia.]

February 11th, 1856.

RESPECTED SIR:—In answer to your communication respecting the two pupils bound to us, namely, Wm. T. Sullivan and David Stockton, we are glad to be able to inform you that they give us full satisfaction. They are civil, faithful, and obedient to us in all things; in a few words, they are all we could wish for, and they comply with all you have requested of them.

Yours, truly,

LACEY & PHILLIPS.

[From Mr. W. BREWSTER, Publisher of the Huntingdon Journal.]

Huntingdon, January 2d, 1856.

DEAR SIR:—Yours of the 30th was received last evening, and in answer to your interrogatories concerning W. T. Miller, I answer, he does apply himself diligently to his occupation. His progress in the printing is good, and I think likely to be somewhat eminent. He is now able to make journeymen's wages. He has never absented himself except such time as I give him for recreation. He resides in my family, and submits to the discipline of it. He is correct in his morals, cleanly in his person, orderly in his habits, and I may say his general behavior is good.

Respectfully, yours,

W. BREWSTER.

[From Mr. W. M. REILLY, Druggist, Philadelphia.]

Philadelphia, January 7th, 1856.

DEAR SIR:—In accordance with the request of the Directors of the Girard College, to be informed, from time to time, of the progress and conduct of the lad John Ward, it affords me much pleasure to state that he has applied himself faithfully, and is truly devoted to his business, and his conduct and deportment are entirely unexceptionable. He has made rapid advancement in acquiring a knowledge of the business ; has never absented himself without my full knowledge and consent, and then but for a short time, for the purpose of visiting his relatives. He is studious in his leisure hours, and punctual in his engagements, having no associates but of the proper character. In fact, I feel assured, he will as a man, as he has as a boy, prove an ornament to the honored institution that gave him his education and moral training.

Respectfully, yours,

WM. M. REILLY.

[From Mr. M. G. HAZLETT, (Firm of Ray, Tevis & Hazlett, Philadelphia.)]

Philadelphia, December 31st, 1855.

DEAR SIR :—In reply to your questions, I have the pleasure to state that William Johnson is diligent and attentive to business, and has made as much progress as could be expected, and never absents himself without permission. His hours are good, and mostly spent at home, and in all other respects as good as I would wish.

Yours, respectfully,

M. G. HAZLETT.

[From Messrs. WAGNER & MCGUIGAN, Lithographers,
Philadelphia.]

Philadelphia, January 3d, 1856.

DEAR SIR :—In reply to your kind inquiry respecting William Klemm and Robert Babb, formerly pupils of the College, we would state that their conduct has been very satisfactory, their progress all that could be reasonably expected, and at no time have they absented themselves during the past year. Not residing in our families, we are unable to state from a personal knowledge, but we have the assurance of those in charge, that they keep proper hours and companions of a suitable character. Public worship has not received that attention from them as should be wished for, but to all other questions we must answer favorably.

Yours, &c.,

WAGNER & McGUIGAN.

[From Mr. GEORGE BLACK, Plasterer, Philadelphia.]

Philadelphia, January 18, 1856.

DEAR SIR:—Your notice has been thankfully received. I am well pleased with Joseph Anderson, and with his movements in business, as well as in every other respect. He is diligent, obedient and faithful in all things required of him. He has never been absent from his business; his leisure time is spent with my family, and in reading. He makes no associates and is strictly moral. I can say he attends public worship on the Sabbath, and through the week also. His progress in business would be hard to excel.

Yours, with respect,

GEORGE BLACK.

[From Mr. JAS. L. BISPHAM, Druggist, Philadelphia.]

February 6, 1856.

DEAR SIR:—Your favor, requesting further information concerning the advancement and deportment of the young men in my charge, has been received.

In reply, I state that their progress in acquiring a knowledge of the business is gratifying, and their conduct entirely satisfactory.

Respectfully, yours,

JAS. L. BISPHAM.

Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, January 2, 1856.

DEAR SIR:—Your favor of the 30th ult., in regard to the boy William H. Brunt, bound to me, has been received. In reply to the questions, I am happy to say that I am much pleased with him. I can say nothing but that his manners and education received at the College, reflect the highest credit on it.

Respectfully,

S. H. HARTMAN.

[From Messrs. HALL & BOARDMAN, Manufacturers Britannia Ware,
Philadelphia.]

Philadelphia, February 2, 1856.

DEAR SIR:—William J. McGirr is still with us and boarding with his mother, and doing very well.

Very respectfully, yours,

HALL & BOARDMAN.

[From WM. F. GEDDES, Printer, Philadelphia.]

Philadelphia, February 8th, 1856.

DEAR SIR:—In answer to the questions, I reply as follows:

1st. George Tanner has applied himself diligently, is civil, faithful and obedient; has made very good progress as a compositor, the only employment required of him as yet. He is the most quiet, orderly lad I have ever seen.

2d. He has an older brother, an apprentice, who, I believe, is his only associate, he (George) is so quiet and retiring.

3d. He resides with his grandparent, and I learn from him that he attends church with him, is correct in his deportment, cleanly in his person, and his general behavior is good.

Respectfully yours,

WM. F. GEDDES.

[From Mr. JNO. F. LUSH, Carpenter, Philadelphia.]

February 4th, 1856.

DEAR SIR :—In answer to the questions required of me by you, in reference to George Graham, I would state that he applies himself diligently and makes good progress. He is civil, faithful, and obedient, and has not been absent at any time without my consent. His relatives where he lives, tell me that he keeps good hours and is a good boy. I believe his associates are good, as far as I can find out.

Yours, respectfully,

JNO. F. LUSH.

[From Mr. ELI HOLDEN, Watchmaker, Philadelphia.]

Philadelphia, January 7th, 1856.

DEAR SIR :—It affords me much pleasure to be able to answer all your inquiries, concerning the two boys, Franklin Garrett and Samuel Jenkins, affirmatively.

They apply themselves to business—are making good progress, and have never been absent from me except by permission. They are allowed two evenings a week, and to the best of my knowledge, they are spent with their relatives. They attend public worship regularly every Sabbath. I rely with confidence on their honesty and integrity. As to their deportment, I can also say it is such as I approve.

Yours, truly,

ELI HOLDEN.

[From ROBERT S. SMITH, Carver, Philadelphia.]

Philadelphia, February 4th, 1856.

DEAR SIR :—Press of business has prevented my answering your letter (of 25th December) before.

Joseph Dittus, bound to me by the College, has applied himself diligently to his occupation, and has been civil, faithful and obedient, and has made such progress as could be expected of him. He has not been absent from my employment, nor are his unengaged hours spent with improper companions. He resides with my family, and submits to its discipline, keeps good hours, is correct in his morals, cleanly in his person, and his general behavior such as I approve of.

Yours, respectfully,

ROBERT S. SMITH.

[From Mr. GEORGE THOMPSON, Oak Cooper, Philadelphia.]

Philadelphia, January 28th, 1856.

DEAR SIR :—I received your communication requesting information in regard to my apprentice from the Girard College, Andrew J. Brown. In answer to your first question, I may say, that he is diligent, faithful, civil and obedient, and has made as much progress as could be expected of him, from one of his age.

2d. He has never deserted from my employment.

3d. When not engaged, visiting his mother and sisters, and part of the time in reading, his associates are all proper as far as I have a knowledge of them.

He resides in my family, and submits to my rules, keeps good hours, is correct in his morals, and cleanly in his person. He attends public worship, and his general behavior is such as I approve.

Yours, respectfully,

GEO. THOMPSON.

[From Mr. WM. E. HAMILL, Farmer, Philadelphia County.]

January 4th, 1856.

DEAR SIR :—Your circular of the 25th ult. was duly received. In reply, I would state, that John A. Cope, the pupil apprenticed to me by the College, is improving in the knowledge of the pursuit he has chosen. He is civil, faithful and obedient. He has never deserted, nor been absent without my permission. His leisure time is usually spent at home, and to my knowledge he has no evil associates. He resides in my family, attends public worship and Sabbath-school, and is correct in his morals, orderly in his habits, and cleanly in his person, and his general behavior is commendable.

Respectfully, yours,

WM. E. HAMILL.

[From Mr. W. F. REYNOLDS, Merchant.]

Bellefonte, February 26th, 1856.

DEAR SIR :—Having mislaid the circular received from you, I have delayed to answer in the hope that I should yet find it, but in that have been disappointed.

I must therefore reply in general terms.

I take great pleasure in saying that George W. Jackson continues to be all that I could wish ; gentlemanly in his deportment, cleanly in his habits, devoted to his business, attentive to his church duties, and devoting all his leisure hours to his books.

Very truly, yours,

W. F. REYNOLDS.
